

Tracey Jacobsen

Your regulations are costly and oppressive, and doing little to help the environment or Californians. We are farmers and small business owners in the ag industry. Our costs have grown to the point that we had to pay to farm last year, and this year is looking as bad. Stop adding more and more regulation, strangling the ability of people to conduct business with a reasonable cost.