

Cheryl Street

Please stop and think about the people that live and work in California. Your rules are already crippling the working class and if this passes it will be the death blow beyond a doubt.