

Francisco Aguirre

Please stop adding new rules and regulations to gasoline. We need gasoline for work and to survive. If you want people to take public transportation make it safer and add more of it. Too many stories of people getting stabbed on the bus or train to take public transportation. Many family members drive for uber or doordash and they are hurting from higher gas prices. Please help us.