

Suzanne Marshall

Vote No on any bill that will raise the price of gas. This is causing great distress on people already struggling with the very high cost to live in California because of the tax burden.

Vote NO for the single mom, the struggling student, the young family, the elderly, and the average guy trying to make ends meet.