

Fred Johnson

How about considering the cost of your "regulations" to the residence of California before you pass any further laws that increase the cost of living in CA!