

Allan Rasmusson

The proposed changes will increase gasoline cost which is already twice the national average. Oil producers are leaving the state which will increase cost already and the proposed bill would further increase cost.