

John Haw

I would sure hope that the 'Mandatory Reporting of Greenhouse Gas Emissions could hold off, at least for another year, to avoid even higher gas prices. Ca is already well above the average price of gas, and to tack on more taxes is simply unfair to the average person who must drive in Ca.

A little Common Sense would be great.

Thank you

John Haw