

Markq Lanphere

I strongly encourage CARB NOT to move forward with this amendment. There is no benefit to the consumer if this passes, adds costs to the highest cost gasoline in the USA, and burdens those who must do the reporting. A more balanced approach to managing this issue is required.