

Lukas Hartwich

Hello, thank you for taking my feedback into consideration. While good intentioned, I am worried this proposal will lead to higher prices, which will be borne by a population still reeling from the Covid-era inflation wave. I respectfully hope that CARB will refocus its attention on supporting important Californian energy infrastructure to limit cost increases and maintain this great state's resiliency. Thank you again for your time.