

Rebecca Thompson

Our family cannot afford anymore regulations strangling our lives and affordability to survive in the State of California. Please, we have had enough regulations on our air, water and gas to date with the only outcome being unaffordable living and no positive results for our residents. You are crushing the future of California and our families.