

James Haney

Stop the madness. We already pay the highest prices in the US. 50% higher than the national average. You are killing the average Californian.