

Karen Nalos

I think most Californians have had enough of all this regulation going on that limits our ability to produce for our families. We want jobs, we want electricity, we want oil, not this new Green deal. Politicians just pad their pockets. I oppose this proposal.