

Guy Adams

We already have the highest gas prices in the country, which hits the middle class and lower income people the hardest. Why is an un-elected board applying taxes to the working class people of California!!! Stop with the stupidity