

Chris England

Most of us can't afford for gas prices to go any higher. I am currently unemployed and have worked my whole life. Now would be the wrong time to raise gas prices. Most valley residents can't stretch their wallets any more.