

Stefan Guth

I cant comment on the facts (not an expert), but the math is fundamentally wrong. What the article reported as a 31% increase over the national average, is mathematically a 49% increase.