

Jason Pambrun

I am STRONGLY opposed to any amendment which would result in increasing the already onerous fuel taxes Californians are currently paying. Please reconsider these actions which will do nothing for the environment but will continue to burden the working poor and middle class.