

Damien Peters

Please stop wrecking the poor working class, we can't afford to Live in California with the cost of living being so much higher than other states, I am also to poor to move and I represent millions of voiceless poor people in CA