

Gene Wilson

Adding another tax (charge) to gas to further your agenda is simply not a smart move at this point. With Iran costing us almost $1 in increased cost per gallon of gas another increase is devastating to commuters, truckers, delivery persons and the general public and we all pay for it in the long run. We need a break. Please do not increase fees on gas prices. Thank you.