

William Johnstone

This is another very obvious ploy by Gov. Newsome to steal money from the citizens of California. We are tired of overpaying gasoline taxes and never seeing the money from our gas tax used to maintain safe and well maintained roads. We are already severely overtaxed in California and our representatives want to tax us more. This is becoming ridiculous. Use some of that high speed rail money to maintain our state roads and stop this tax which boils down to theft.