

Janelle Young

I am against yet another tax increase on our fuel costs. As a Central Valley native, it is becoming increasingly difficult for me and my family to continue to live in California. Please slow down, and reconsider what you are doing to California families. Thank you.