

Elizabeth Arceo

California already pays some of the highest gas prices in the country among other things. This is absolutely egregious and uncalled for. What are you doing with the taxes we are already paying?