

Gabriel Hernandez

Do not pass these amendments as they will drive the last of the refineries out of California.

This will have a significant impact on the cost of living as energy prices increase, driving production and transportation costs up.