

Denise Huerta

I oppose this gas tax, and urge you to not pass this. This will have an obvious devastating financial burden on families and most citizens in CA. It will also affect all forms of business to keep their prices affordable across the board. It will likely cause businesses to go out of business or go bankrupt due to increased gas prices due to delivering goods and supplies, business to business as well as direct to customers. This is not in the best interest of California.