

Ogie Strogatz

I call on CARB to strengthen our Cap and Trade program as follows:

Create tangible emissions reductions benefits for Californians by reducing allowances (aka increase program stringency);

Require direct environmental benefits to Californians;

Implement better price protections for ratepayers;

Reject benefits for dangerous false solutions like dairy methane and carbon capture and sequestration; and

Honor the Environmental Justice Advisory Committee's (EJAC) recommendations and heed their calls.