

Joel E Velazquez

Do NOT pass amendments that will drive California's last refineries out of the state while the gas is already at SIX dollars a gallon. I commute to school I'll forced to drop out and work local. I have a dream to help my parents, this is NOT helping us, it only helps you government!