

David Bradshaw

Creating regulations is just a way to to tax without representation. Very unfair to the hard working people of the great state of California.