

Juan Rivera

Hispanic low income families are already crushed by the high cost of gasoline prices at fault by the CARB unelected commission and the policies enacted by the Democrat Supermajority in Sacramento. Stop increasing the gas prices and work with the Trump administration to lower the gas prices, if you truly cared about the environment you would punish the companies that truly mess up our air.