

Sam Kal

Please consider not adding taxes to our gas. Gas in CA is already more than $1 more than the rest of the country, and we constantly hear about the affordability crisis. This will only make things worse. The CA government does not have an income problem, it has a spending and budgetary problem.