

Colleen Meyer

All these gas taxes are ridiculous and you are just putting them on us with no recourse because you "have the power." Its unfortunate that you forgot with get powercomea great responsibility. It is a shame that you say you're working for the people. Its more like you're working to take as much money as you can from the people.