

Therese Parmele

As a business owner and native Californian, I am imploring the board to NOT impose "cap and invest" amendments! The proposed legislation will cripple our state's remaining refineries therefore increase fuel prices, reduce jobs and threaten critical energy and national security assets.