

Venise Smalley

Please have a heart for the working families. We don't need more taxes. Everything is significantly higher now - gas, groceries, rent, healthcare, utilities, insurance and the list is endless. We cannot afford to provide for our families with more taxes being dumped on American families. Please do what's right and reconsider your vote.