

Mark Allein

Please consider the majority of the people in your state that can not afford electric cars, high electricity rates, high gas prices, and high prices in the grocery store. These are problems that YOU have created! Consider ALL of the people in the state and not just your wealthy friends.