

Nzinga Griffin

It is absolutely ridiculous to add any additional costs to the state that has the highest gas in the nation for years now. We do travel. Do you all have families? As a state employee and 3rd generation Californian by way of the Southern US, I'm disgusted. Have some common sense and decency. Find your money somewhere else.