

Emelio Harver

I am concerned about the increasing noise pollution in our community, as it disrupts our daily lives and overall well-being. Additionally, the local turtle population is at risk due to habitat destruction and pollution, which requires immediate attention and conservation efforts. Lastly, improving air quality should be a top priority to ensure the health and safety of all residents.