

Jenelle Wildeman

To Whom it may concern,

Vancouver Lake is an important part of our community. It is one of very few places our families can enjoy locally.. Please consider making our lake a priority to clean up, and allow people to use for many years without being worried about any health risks.