

James Cookware (Jamie James)

You can review the full EA and provide comments at the link below. The NPS proposes to implement an Integrated Pest Management (IPM) program to control invasive, non-native plants, restore impacted areas, and detect and prevent new infestations. The purpose of these actions is to protect natural ecosystem dynamics, including the vegetation, wildlife, and other terrestrial and aquatic resources and processes that are threatened by invasive, non-native plants.