

Kathryn Fitch Fitch

This beautiful lake is a treasure for boating recreation, swimming, bird and fish life. It is no longer safe for human use during the summer. For too long the state has ignored this unique natural gift to the whole region. Please make it your priority and then I will come back to enjoying rowing on it.