

Carol News

As someone who bikes regularly in the area, I would like to see the EIS address safety measures—particularly at intersections and crossings. Trail signage, lighting, and separation between bike and pedestrian lanes should be clearly outlined to reduce risk and ensure a safe experience for all users.