

LA Department of Garbage (Peter Sanders)

While I understand the community benefits of the Echo Lake trail, I urge the project team to pursue low-impact construction techniques and avoid impermeable surfaces where possible. The EIS should clearly assess long-term water runoff and erosion risks and explore sustainable trail design alternatives.