

George Walter

As a nearby resident and frequent visitor to Echo Lake, I'm concerned about the potential impact the proposed trail and path may have on local wildlife. This area is home to deer, herons, and other sensitive species. I hope the EIS includes a comprehensive study on habitat disruption and outlines measures to minimize harm to existing ecosystems.