

Debra McGuinty

As the Environmental Protection Agency, your job is to PROTECT the environment. Inaction on stopping pesticide use and not disclosing what is in our food is a true crime. Start acting and quit bowing down to greed within the chemical companies! I have personally experienced cancer and believe many of our health problems stem from our intake of pure garbage in our food supply. Time is of the essence so do your jobs.