

Sophia Garcia

I believe that the Brighton Beach Waterfront project has the potential to benefit the community if it is carefully planned and implemented. By prioritizing responsible development and sustainable practices, we can ensure that the project benefits the community while minimizing negative impacts on the environment and cultural resources. With careful consideration and collaboration, I am hopeful that we can create a vibrant and sustainable waterfront that benefits everyone in the community.