

Lorenzo Mutia

The 405 has already endured an expansion that did little to make trips more reliable. The entire corridor should be tolled or express lanes made out of existing lanes. No more expansions. Transit needs to be prioritized as well. Tolling can pay for vastly improved transit via bus and rail (future) and needs to be implemented before tolling begins.